The Body Shop opened during the end of 1973 in Wausau and the female employees at that time were all local girls until early April, 1974, when [redacted] began his association with [redacted]. From then until early May, 1974, [redacted] was providing the girls, apparently through the Venus Booking Agency.

b6

MI 166-789

MI 166-818

On 5/11/74 the Body Shop was moved to Blake Street in Mosinee, Wisconsin and [redacted] was no longer associated with the operation on the premises.

b6

b7C

b7D

Surveillance at the Body Shop developed several customers (vehicle registrations obtained and some photos taken).
Surveillance also established that the 2 girls were meeting male customers of the "White House", an a-go-go tavern in Mosinee, Wis., before and after their work at the Body Shop.
On two occasions the females were observed accompanying male customers of the "White House" to local motels after the Body Shop closed.

On 5/18/74 town officials served an order of a zoning violation on [redacted] at the Body Shop in Mosinee, and it has not reopened.

b6

b7C

The possibility of separate violations exist, and therefore,
this matter will be worked under the two captioned subjects.
[redacted] and the Venus Booking Agency may be involved in other ITAR-PROSTITUTION activities unrelated to the Body Shop and vice-versa.

b6

b7C

MI 166-789
MI 166-818

It is felt that the Body Shop will be reopened at a new location in the near future.

Investigation at the present is directed at identifying as many female employees as possible, obtaining photos of the females, determining their travel to Wausau, the name of the booking agency, source contacts at the Body Shop and identifying the male customers. No interviews of the females employees or the male customers are being conducted at this time.

It is felt that intensive interviews of male customers and female employees could develop a Federal violation at this time, however, the case can be made stronger through further investigation.

LEADS

ALL RECEIVING OFFICES AND LEAD AGENTS

Milwaukee surmises that the phone calls made from the Body Shop were to potential customers, prospective female employees, booking agencies for a-go-go dancers, or other matters related to the actual day-to-day business of the Body Shop's operation. Milwaukee is attempting, through determination of subscribers, to develop names of prospective male customers, female employees, and to develop the interstate nature of the violations. No request is being set forth at this time for interview or direct contact with any of the subscribers to the above-listed phone numbers.

In each instance where interview of a female dancer, masseuse, or associate is requested, interview should include: (1) dates of travel to Wausau and from Wausau; (2) how engagement was booked; (3) who paid travel expenses; (4) how travel was made; (5) knowledge of prostitution or related activities; (6) statements made by subjects, booking agents and owner of White House Tavern re proceeds from prostitution or knowledge of same; (7) identities of any other prostitutes working the Wausau area; (8) identities of any "johns" known to them and how they were referred; (9) connection with or knowledge of any local motels regarding prostitution activities.

Details:

Investigation in this matter was predicated upon receipt of information from [redacted] [redacted] Wausau, Wisconsin Police Department, on February 12, 1974, indicating that a massage parlor called the "Body Shop" was being operated in Wausau, and that there were alleged prostitution activities by the employees.

It was determined the Body Shop was operating at 7th Avenue and Thomas Street, above the West Side Pharmacy, [redacted]

Investigation through contacts with [redacted] [redacted] until April 1, 1974, indicated the Body Shop was being operated on a semi-regular basis with local girls acting as masseuses.

District Attorney DAN LA ROQUE, Marathon County, Wausau, Wisconsin, stated that two individuals had been interviewed by Wausau, Wisconsin Police in connection with activities at the "Body Shop" while in Wausau, Wisconsin, and he had the originals of statements given by both the female individuals to Wausau Police officers. He provided copies of the statements of the two females. The individuals interviewed are [redacted]

[redacted] statement taken on April 11, 1974 at 11:00 p. m. by [redacted] of the Wausau, Wisconsin Police Department:

[redacted]

 I wish to give the following statement to [redacted] [redacted] of my own free will, without any threats, promises or coercion of any kind.

" I am willing to give this statement regarding any knowledge I [redacted] about the Body Shop on Thomas St. in Wausau.

[redacted]
 [redacted]
 [redacted] There are two kinds of massages we would give, the regular massage for $10.00 which was a shower and massage with oil or powder for 40 minutes. A light finger tip massage is the second type for $5.00. A complete massage is $25.00 and would include a hand job; I usually turned these down. We could massage topless if we wanted to, [redacted] asked me to but I refused. If the masseuse was topless, the charge would be an additional $15.00.

"I have never observed any type of prostitution there and [redacted] has never propositioned me to become involved in any of it. I never knew or heard of any oral sex going on at the Body Shop.

"Business at the body shop was never exactly booming. Sometimes, we would only have one customer, other nights, we would have maybe three. If customers would ask what the complete massage was, I would just tell them it included a local penis massage. I have been propositioned by a few customers for some kind of sex act for extra money, they were usually drunk, but I always turned them down. I would say half of the customers had a complete massage for $25.00. All the customers from my knowledge, were males.

[redacted] asked me if I was going to go to Mosinee when he went there. I said no because of what I had heard from [redacted]. They said [redacted] was bringing girls up from Point and Milwaukee to train at the Body Shop here in Wausau and then go to work in Mosinee. They said colored girls were coming; I just figured this meant prostitution as well as massages.

"Our pay was 50% of all money which we took in.

"With this was maybe three customers for both girls working, totaling six.
